

Requirements for US Swine Health Improvement Plan (US SHIP) Certification

- Participating premises are enrolled with the US SHIP Official State Agency (US SHIP OSA) in state where premises is located
- Maintain valid veterinary client patient relationship
- Premises level demographic information on-file with US SHIP OSA
- Maintain records of all swine movement information in and out of participating premises
- Completion of biosecurity survey at enrollment
- Demonstrate competence in providing at least 30 days of swine movement information to the US SHIP OSA in timely manner
- Boar studs only: Semen traceability, same as outlined for animal movement traceability
- Compliance with existing state and federal animal/group/lot identification
- Feeding of swill, garbage, or table waste with potential for including meat products is prohibited
- Five day down time and PPE requirements for visitors that have recently been exposed to livestock, wild pigs, or slaughter facilities in ASF/CSF/FMD positive areas/regions

For more information visit <https://usswinehealthimprovementplan.com/>

Or contact the Kentucky Department of Agriculture, the Official State Agency at - statevet@ky.gov or call 502-573-0282.

